Preface

The present volume catalogues (Accn. No. 4097-6583) some 2756 manuscripts deposited in the Udaipur branch as the "Pandit Ravi Shankar Derashri" collection. The late Derashriji (1903-1962 A.D.) was deeply interested in literature and history and he had collected a large number of valuable manuscripts and paintings during his lifetime. He had presented a number of rare and valuable miniature paintings to the Bharatiya Kala Bhawan of the Banaras Hindu University. His sons have now generously donated a number of paintings to the State Archaeology Department and the entire manuscripts collection to the Institute for which they deserve our heartful thanks.

Pandit Ravi Shankarji was born on the 21st of April 1903 in a learned family in Banera (Mewar). His ancestors served the court of Mewar right from Maharana Kumbha (1433-1468 A.D.) to Maharana Raj Singh I (1652-1680 A.D.) One of his ancestors Pt. Kushalesh left Udaipur alongwith Bhim Singh and settled at Banera and was appointed as a 'Rājaguru'. His ancestors Chaturbhujji and his brother Nanji took active part in the battle on the side of Raya Singh of Banera, which was fought between Ari Singh and Mahadji Sindhia. They are said to have brought the corpse of Raya Singh lifting it on their shoulders from the battlefield to the royal camp. For this service the title of Deharā Shri 'Grace of the Royal Tent' was conferred on them.

Pandit Nagaji Ramji Shāstri. the elder brother of Pt. Ravi Shankarji's father, was a learned Sanskrit Scholar of his times, and has to his credit the authorship of works such as the 'Akṣaya Nīti Sūdhākara', 'Vaṁśa Varṅanam' 'Śikṣābala Jati Prabodha, 'Bhūpa Bhūṣaṇa'. 'Nīti Sudhā'. 'Bhū Bhrānti Nivāraṇa' etc. The last named work is a satire on the princes who have adopted the decadent values of the West.

Pt. Ravi Shankar ji took his B.Sc. and LL.B. degrees from the Allahabad University and obtained that of Bar-at-law from England. He was also honoured by the membership of the Royal Asiatic Society and the Bharatiya Vidya Parishad. He was awarded the title of 'Vidya Bhusana'. He died on the 12th of March, 1962 leaving behind two sons and two daughters Shri Vidya Sagar, Shri Akshaya Kumar. Smt. Sumitra Tiwari and Smt. Shatrupa Devi Pandit. Shri Akshaya Kumar ji is in the Indian Revenue Service as Asst. Collector of Customs and Central Excise. His nephew the late Prof. S.D. Derashri was a renowned educationist and economist who served the University of Jodhpur as Professor & Head of the Economics Department. We all remember him as one of our frequent visitors. Ravi Shankar ji was a selfless aud dedicated person. His achievements are too numerous and cannot be compressed in this short life-sketch. We would like to reserve some space for giving more about him in our Research Bulletins.

Though he was a student of science and law, he took keen interest in History and literature also. His research work helped Narayan Shyam Rao Chitambare write his 'History of Banera'.

Though born in an orthodox family he was a staunch supporter of equality in the society and hated untouchability. In those feudal times he was a staunch supporter of Democracy and helped in the establishment of Local-self-Government. He wanted the princes to introduce popular rule. He expressed his ideas openly in his series of articles published in the Nav Jivan' (1941-42) and in Marathi journals. He also acted as a legal consultant to Raja Prafulla Chandra Bhanja Deo of Bastar. and to the prince of Dungarpur in 1935 A.D. He also served the Raghogarh estate in Madhya Pradesh as an administrator. He has the credit of developing the state to a considerable extent.

His care for the cultural heritage led him to collect a large number of paintings and manuscripts He also edited and got published two historical and literary works entitled "Śera Prakaśa" and Jaya Simha Virdāvalī" printed from Gwalior and Raghogarh. These books relate to the deeds of the Khichi Chauhans of Raghogarh. His interest extended also to Ethics, Astrology, Ayurveda and comparative study of religions. His love for the development of Hindi made him write articles in Hindi magazines published from Prayag namely "Vidyarthi" and the "Vigyan".

The Catalogue records some valuable manuscripts on the Dharma Śāstra, Darśana and Kāvya namely the 'Pravāsa Kṛṣṇa' 71/6378),'Prabandha Dīpa of Amareśa' (273/5203), Saṁskāra Kaumudi (452/4693). Dilli Rājya Varṇana (495/4362), Maṭha Sampradāya Verṇana (498/4722), Cittora Praśasti (501/4480), Gaṇeśa Purāṇa, (658/5752(i)), Nyaya Kusumāñjali ṭikā (802/6539), Mahārāja Mādhava Caritra (1896/4176), Vijñyanātha Kāvya Ratnāvali (1903/4459), Nīti Kusumāñjali (1947/6007), Akṣaya nīti Sudhākara (2125/4458), and a large number of almanacs beginning from 1658 A.D. The oldest work the "Kirātārjūniyam" is dated A.D. 1456.

Dr. B.M Jawalia. Senior Research Assistant, has taken great pains in arranging the donated manuscripts properly and in preparing their detailed catalogue. Shri Girdhar Vallabh Dadhich, and the printers Pankaj Printers, Jodhpur also deserve a word of appreciation for reading the proofs and doing the printing work quite capably.

For errors and omissions I seek the indulgence of readers.
